

BOWERY THEATRE.—The “Star Sisters,” Misses Lucille and Helen, who have been playing here during the past three weeks, will conclude their engagement this evening. They are pretty, pert, piquant and clever, and have made any number of conquests among the susceptible habitués of the Bowery.

THE MUSARD CONCERTS.—The success of these concerts is crescendo, the attendance being nightly on the increase. To-night's programme is very good, and some extra attractions are announced for the coming week.

A NEW PIECE AT BURTON'S.—Mr. Brougham's new “dramatic absurdity,” “The Great Tragic Revival,” is announced for this evening. It is said to be in the author's pleasantest vein.

Multiple Arts & Entertainment Items.

The New York Herald (New York, New York, Saturday, April 17, 1858; pg. 4. (107 words)

Category: Arts & Entertainment

Gale Document Number:GT3009142877