STATE AND LOCAL.

THERE IS A DAILY UNION PRAYER MEETING, at 8 A. M., for half an hour, in the Basement of the First Presbyterian Church...

S. D. THATCHER, Esq., of the Express Company, furnishes us Eastern papers in advance of the mail.

Bar Meeting. The members of the bar of Ohio are requested to meet in the Supreme Court Room...

HON. H. H. HUNTER. Supreme Court Judge elect, has declined to serve in that capacity, owing, as we learn, to the severe and protracted illness of his wife.

THE NEW HOSPITAL.—Orders have been issued by the War Department for erection at this post of a new military hospital for the accommodation of one thousand patients.

LOST.—On yesterday between Broad street and the North Toll-gate, a lady's fine gold ear-drop, which is very highly prized by the owner.

THE 19TH OHIO.—The 19th O. V. I., of about 350 re-enlisted veterans, arrived in this city yesterday morning from Knoxville, to be paid off and furloughed.

THE 66TH OHIO.—The 66th O. V. I.—Col. Chas. Candy—is again on its way to the front. It arrived at Cincinnati on Tuesday from Urbana, where it was originally organized Dec. 17, 1861, and took passage on a steamer for Nashville.

SEVENTH WARD.—A meeting of the citizens of the Seventh Ward will be held at Valentine Hetteshimer's, on this (Thursday) evening, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of making arrangements to furnish the quota of volunteers required from said Ward under the call for 500,000 men.

ELLISLER'S ATHENEUM.—Quite a full house greeted the second representation of the "French Spy" last night. Miss Sallie St. Clair appeared in her different characters in that drama, and also as Nan in the farce, with that facility and power of transforming herself into the personality she represents, which have made her so great a favorite with the public.

MISS PAULINE CUSHMAN, The famous Union Spy and Scout, Who was tried and sentenced to death as a Federal Spy, by the rebel GENERAL BRAGG, and rescued by the Union Army under command of General Rosecrans, will give a Reception Entertainment, at Naughton Hall, on Thursday Evening, February 4, 1864.

GRAND AND PETIT JURORS.—A venire has been issued to Sheriff Domigan to summon the following persons from the townships named, to serve as Grand and Petit Jurors at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas for this county, commencing Monday February 29, 1864.

GRAND JURORS.—Theodore Leonard, W. H. Gaver, David Taylor, Wm. Merion, Gabriel Deemer, Simon Tompkins, James Trimble and Wm. Haddock, of Montgomery; Ezekiel Compton and Henry M. Albery, of Jefferson; Charles Vimar and J. P. Hay, of Pleasant; J. M. Briggs, of Franklin; Uriah Brinkerhoff, of Blendon, and Wm. R. Hunt, of Clinton.

PETIT JURORS.—Samuel Crosby, Uriah Lathrop, Adam Stevens, Geo. Karb and P. T. Krag, of Montgomery; Jonathan Dague and A. W. Taylor, of Plain; Samuel King, Sr., of Norwich; David Beers, Jr., of Milford; Gushon Peters, of Perry; Joseph Chapman, of Blendon, and Wm. Ferrin, of Madison.

THE ALLEGHANIANS at NAUGHTON HALL. Naughton Hall was filled last evening at the Concert of the Alleghanians with a large, brilliant and delighted audience.

Miss PAULINE CUSHMAN.—This young heroine, who is a sort of "Dashing White Sergeant," promoted to the rank of Major, will give her first soiree at Naughton Hall, this evening. Actress, vocalist and heroine, and withal a captivating woman, it will be strange if the excitement does not reach the crowding point to-night. She will be assisted by Tosso and Gardner, artists of high musical repute.

BASIL DUKE.—The rebel Colonel Basil Duke was on Tuesday, by order of the War Department, removed from the Ohio Penitentiary, and is now at Camp Chase. Upon receiving the order for his removal, Captain Merion, the Warden, refused to deliver up his prisoner, except upon an order from Governor Brough. Colonel Duke's parole has been taken, and he is allowed the freedom of the camp, but not to go beyond the pickets.

M. LAHEY and T. McKernan propose to give their last Ball this season at Naughton Hall, Tuesday evening, Feb. 9th. Admission for Gentlemen and Ladies, $1 00.

MYSTERY.—"Mother," said a little fellow four years old, "if a man is a mister, ain't a woman a mystery." The greatest mystery in the world to us, is that any one will buy any other Saleratus but Herriek Allen's Gold Medal. It cures dyspepsia, strengthens weak stomachs, saves your teeth from decaying, saves one half the quantity of shortening, besides it takes so little of the Saleratus to do its work. Try it. Most merchants sell it. Depot 112 Liberty street, New York.

"He made a few desultory remarks," said the schoolmaster. Mrs. Partington stopped suddenly in the bustle she was making around the table for tea, and gazed over her spees thoughtfully at him. Leaning on a plate edge-wise, as if to enforce her views by the support it gave her, "I suppose because he was weak," said she, "but AYER'S PILLS will cure him. I never knew 'em to fail. They are very solitary in such cases." "Really, madam," replied he, "I cannot guess your meaning." "You said dysentery," said she, laying down the plate, and putting a spoon in the preserves. "I said desultory," said he, smiling, "quite a different thing." "No matter," said she, looking up in time to box Ike's ears, who was putting paper down the chimney of the kerosene lamp. "The pills are good for both I dare say, for they cure almost all the diseases in the cornucopia."

A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION, free from Tan Pimples and Freckles, may easily be procured by using the "Balm of Thousand Flowers." For shaving it is unsurpassed. It is composed of palm oil, honey and other valuable articles, highly perfumed by its own ingredients, and when used for washing, night and morning, renders the skin soft and white, and free from blemish. Price 50 cents. For sale by N. B. Marple and all druggists.

LOST.—On yesterday between Broad street and the North Toll-gate, a lady's fine gold ear-drop, which is very highly prized by the owner. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at this office.

Drake's Plantation Bitters.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate. They create a healthy appetite. They are an antidote to change of water and diet. They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.

They strengthen the system and enliven the mind. They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers. They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach. They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation. They cure Diarrhea, Cholera and Cholera Morbus. They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They are the best Bitters in the world. They make the weak man strong, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Cascarella Bark, Dandelion, Chamomile Flowers, Lavender Flowers, Wintergreen, Anise Clove-buds, Orange Peel, Snake-root, Caraway, Coriander, Burdock, S. T. 1860-X, etc.

The following is a sample of the testimony daily received: SOLDIER'S HOME, SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE, CINCINNATI, O., January 16, 1863.

I have given your Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our noble soldiers who stop here, more abled from various causes, and the effect is most marvelous and gratifying.

Such a preparation as this is heartily used in every family, in every hospital, and at hand on every battle field. G. W. D. ANDREWS, Superintendent.

GENTLEMEN: We require another supply of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which daily increases with the guests of our house. Respectfully, SYKES, CHADWICK & CO., CLEVELAND, Dec. 8, 1862.

I had been so ill with Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia that I was compelled to abandon my business. I used three bottles of the Plantation Bitters, and to my astonishment I am entirely cured. They are the best medicine I ever used, and I shall endeavor to make them known. Please inform me what S. T. 1860-X means. Yours, truly, H. B. KINGSLAY.

Dr. W. Childs, Surgeon of the Tenth Vermont regiment, writes: "I wish every soldier had a bottle of Plantation Bitters. They are the most effective, perfect and harmless tonic I ever used."

GALS HOUSE, LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 21, 1861. Messrs. P. H. Drake & Co.: We are compelled to order 12 dozen Plantation Bitters to supply friends who have no other way of procuring this admirable article.

Respectfully, yours, SILAS P. MILLER & Co., Proprietors, ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 21, 1861.

... .. The Plantation Bitters have cured me of the worst kind of dyspepsia of near four years' standing. I have recommended them to others and as far as I know with signal success. I am, etc., Rev. J. J. CATRON, BURNETT HOUSE, CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 20, 1862.

Messrs. DRAKE & Co.: The Plantation Bitters appear to be very popular here. Send us twenty cases more, and oblige, Yours, truly, T. P. SAUNDERS & Co., etc. etc.

VERY LATEST NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED EXPRESSLY FOR THE STATESMAN.

Last Night's Dispatches.

XXXVIIIth CONGRESS. FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.

SENATE.—The enrollment bill was postponed until to-morrow. The report of the committee on the Judiciary in the Hale case was adopted, and the committee discharged.

On motion of Mr. Fessenden, the Senate took up the House revenue bill, as reported from the committee of Finance with amendments. Mr. Fessenden explained at length the effect and merits of the committee's amendments.

Further consideration of the revenue bill was postponed until to-morrow. Mr. Sumner presented a protest of Germans in Boston against the President's scheme of reconstruction. Referred.

Mr. Myers succeeded to the office of the revenue bill levying a tax of 60c on all spirits sold or distilled and removed for consumption or sale previous to July 1st next.

The bill repealing the acts allowing foreign goods to be imported into Canada through the United States, or exported from Canada through, was referred to the committee on Foreign Relations.

The bill establishing a uniform ambulance system was passed. A resolution was introduced equalizing the pay of soldiers.

After Executive session the Senate adjourned. HOUSE.—The House resumed the consideration of the resolution amendatory of the confiscation act.

An amendment was agreed to striking out the $400 commutation, thus leaving it at $300. The following clause was struck out of the bill: "And if any drafted man shall pay money for procuration of a substitute, such payment shall not be counted against him in filling his quota."

Without further action the committee rose. The House went into committee on the amendatory enrollment bill.

Washington Items.

New York, Feb. 3.—A special to the Commercial Advertiser from Washington 3d, says: The Ways and Means committee has formally considered the tax on Foreign Tobacco. A delegation of butchers were before the committee to-day remonstrating against any increase of tax on beefs.

A special committee to inquire into the expenditures of the Naval Department will meet to-morrow. The matter first investigated to be that concerning purchases made by order of the department in accordance with law, where exorbitant prices were paid.

The Senate Military committee have passed upon a large number of military nominations. Gen. Schofield's nomination, together with many others, were postponed.

The Senate Naval committee also passed upon all naval nominations before them. They likewise considered and will report a bill to equalize the grade of line officers in the navy.

A special to the Post from Washington 3d says: The committee on Ways and Means has to-day, by the instruction of the House yesterday, and attempt to increase the income of the Government very largely by increased taxation.

Mr. Spaulding, of New York, introduced in the House to-day a bill to construct a ship canal around Niagara Falls.

Gen. McClellan's report is out. Mr. Lovoy remains very ill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The Supreme Court is still considering the case of Greene C. Bronson vs. The Lacrosse and Milwaukee railroad company, and three other cases in that connection. There is much entanglement, and the issue involves $750,000.

The amendment reported by Senator Trumbull to-day to the law for holding members of Congress acting as agents for the prosecution of claims, &c., proposes the repeal of the provisions which preclude them from acting as counsel or agent in any court or before any commission.

Heads of departments and chiefs of bureaus, clerks and other officers of the Government are prohibited from accepting pay for services in connection with claims, contracts or accusations, before any department or military or naval commission. The fine on conviction is limited to $10,000 and two years imprisonment, at the direction of court trying same.

The Senate to-day in executive session confirmed the following appointments: W. H. H. Waters, as receiver of public money at Nebraska City; Alexander McCready, receiver of public money at Dacotah City; John W. Balle, receiver of public money at Vermillion; Ralph S. Barr, receiver of public money at San Francisco; B. Adams, receiver of public money at Humboldt, Kansas; W. A. Merriweather, U. S. Marshal for Kentucky.
