

NEWS OF THE DRAMA

Some have thought it a managerial blunder to engage Harrigan and his company for five summer nights in this city, but the quantity did not rest entirely with Mr. Burton. Three nights was his judgment—Harrigan and his manager did the rest at their own risk. Three nights, giving "Old Lavender," "Rolly" and the "Leather Patch" would have made a neat and satisfactory season. There would then have been no substitutions or padding necessary. There were many pleasant things about the Harrigan performances, the best feature being the close adherence to nature of Harrigan himself in his character impersonations. This fidelity was carried far into the detail of speech and gesture, and provided great thought and care in making up the tout ensemble of each study. Through frequent playing, some of these details have become a trifle mechanical and this talented actor will have to guard against this fault as the years wear on. Some of the minor men emens seemed less spontaneous than in the past. As to the company, there were a good many of them, but they were not all stars. Miss Hattie Moore fulfilled her roles well, both as Mother Crawford in "Old Lavender" and as Cordelia, but in the latter she need not have quite so broad. In the second act she becomes intoxicated and one could not help comparing her with a similar situation recently given in the "Masked Ball." Both ladies were under the influence, but Maude Adams was tipsy while Hattie Moore was drunk. All the parts taken by Miss Emma Pollock, especially that of Dink, the Rat, were extremely pleasing, and she is sure to become a favorite as she gains experience. Joseph Sparks in wonderful colored roles, catches the good humor of the audience every time, and though some of his horse-play is rather loud he is always funny. Among the cast are Edward Harrigan, Jr., This young gentleman is not a universal favorite. Not even one lap of his father's mantle has fallen on his shoulders. He must not think to secure approval because he bears the second edition of an illustrious name. On the contrary he must study hard and either improve or quit the stage. He has youth on his side and should have either ambition or real.

The next attraction at the theatre in the way of the drama will be the appearance for three nights, commencing Monday, September 17, of Jacob Litt's company in "In Old Kentucky." This has proven to be one of the best pay-laying things on the road and receives flattering notices from the press wherever it is presented. It seems to be something in the order of "Alabama," and that it will be well put on may be considered certain, for it was the same management that has given us the "Nutmeg Match," "The Ensign" and several other well rendered plays in the past. An old feature of "In Old Kentucky" is the introduction of twenty little peckanninies in the plantation scene.

The "Devil's Auction" which was expected to put in an appearance here next week is still in the remote east and will probably not be seen in this city until later on.

The appearance of Haverly's Master-Am minstrel at the theatre on September 28, is an unexpected addition to the attractions of the coming season. It is said with truth that the name of Haverly is to the minstrel show what Barnum's was to the circus. They and incidents of the Sepoy rebellion in India, and is said to give Mr. Sothman excellent opportunities to display his genius.

Papers are full of headline announcements of M. B. Curtis and "Sam'l of Posen." Milwaukee has September 19; Chicago, September 17, and Detroit, September 24.

The following week at O'Mally's Lyceum will be presented by his stock company, the three-act farce-comedy, entitled, "The New Tutor." A series of mixed-up comicities and incongruities arranged absurdities in its claim, and large audiences will undoubtedly attend and laugh at them.

Charles Frohman has secured the American rights for Sydney Grundy's new play, "The New Woman," which will be produced in London September 1.

In the new "Shenandoah" company, Odette Tyler, John Gilmour and E. J. Radcliffe will carry the leads. Odette Tyler we all remember in "The Lost Paradise" and "Men and Women." John Gilmour joins the "Sowing the Wind" company in November. E. J. Radcliffe will play Kerchival West in "Shenandoah."

Henry E. Abbey has again sailed for London, after a short American stay, and will prepare for Miss Lillian Russell's season there. Poor Lillian is having a hard time of it with American judges and broken contracts; and if Judge Barrett knows where he now is, she will not be permitted to sing for any other managers than Canary & Lederer after October 1. So the judge has decided, and it now remains to be seen what the fair Lillian will do. Abbey's operatic season opens at the Metropolitan, November 10, with Mme. Melba, Sybil Sanderson, Zelle de Lussan, Emma Eames, Mme. Calluemeister and Lucille Hill as sopranos. The tenors include De Reszke, Tamagno and Noveno. "Palstaff" will be the season's feature.

Mrs. Edna Wallace-Hopper will succeed Della Fox with the De Wolf Hopper company this season. The season opens at the Broadway, September 2, in a new version of "Cinderella at School," called "Doctor Syntax."

From Eddy's "Squib," Rose Coghlan has started the rehearsal of "The Woman in White," the play in which she will be seen this season. It is a dramatization of Wilkie Collins' novel, by C. de Grimm. Miss Coghlan will play the dual role of Laura Fairlie and Annie Catherick.

Reginald Kaven and Harry B. Smith's new opera, "Rob Roy," will have its initial production October 29, at the Herald Square theatre. The house will be opened September 17 by Richard Mansfield.

Manager Marcus R. Mayer has returned from Europe and proposes to bring out in October, Olga Netherole. In a repertoire to include "Romeo and Juliet."

Bernhardt, in explanation of her continued youth, says she has always burned her boats behind her. But this is not an infallible formula for the preservation of juvenility. Some may remain younger by burning many of their boats ahead.—Mirror.

"Mr. Coudock is a great disappointment of the stage," says the Chicago Record. "He is seventy years of age, and it might readily be supposed that the faltering and trembling gait of the venerable pastor in the play 'Young Blood' had come with a ripe old age. It seems too real to be simulated. Ten minutes after the curtain fell Mr. Coudock appeared at the stage door. He lit a cigar, pulled his dark slouch back over his eyes, and strode out of the alley with the high, gingerly step of a juvenile. At twenty paces he would easily have been mistaken for a man of thirty-five. The younger members of the company, and they are much younger in comparison, have for Mr. Coudock much reverence and regard. In his leisure moments he tells them of his experience in England fifty years ago, when he was a member of a Shakespearean company which strolled from town to town, stopping at the 'Baubie Shop' at Berlin, proved a failure.

The production of the German translation of "The Baubie Shop" at Berlin, proved a failure.

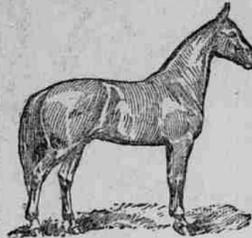

A theatrical wit, pondering on the

REMEMBER

COMMENCES

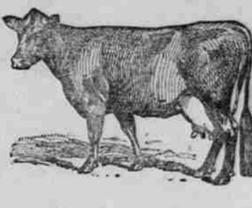

Tuesday, Oct. 2, '94

$10,000 Given Away.

$10,000 Given Away.

$10,000 Given Away.

A GREAT EXHIBIT OF UTAH'S WONDERFUL RESOURCES.

Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Dogs and Poultry. Paintings by Home Artists. Educational and Mineral Exhibits. World's Fair Silk Exhibit.

Admission - 25 cents
Children - 10 cents

The Desert Agricultural & Manufacturing Society.

JOHN R. WINDER, President. GEORGE D. PYPER, Secretary.

sudden advent on the stage of a woman who has become notorious through a breach of promise case, said yesterday: "Miss X. is busy with the character of Moths, and moths are busy with the character of Miss X. The audience is kindly requested to bring camphor."—Mirror.

Local critics have had to view the performance at the Lyceum with one eye in order to avoid seeing any resemblance between "College Chums" and "Charley's Aunt." It dawned upon us early in the week, but none of us wanted to make the Jordan of the theatrical manager any harder to travel than it is, and nothing was said.

The tabernacle concert that Mr. Evans promised during the recent organ oration should be given, is set for some time next week. The occasion will be an organ recital by the pupils of Professor J. J. Daynes, and there will be rendered the numbers by Mrs. Hamilton which so many desired to hear. Mr. Ensign and Mrs. Agnes O. Thomas will also be heard in the vocal part of the programme.

Frohman's Empire company will play here on its return from the Pacific coast. It is doubtful whether we shall see "Gudgeons," but we have a fair chance of seeing "The Councilor's Wife" and "Liberty Hall."

An entertainment at the theatre in which Miss Hornick, the elocutionist, Miss Viola Pratt and others will appear.

CAPTAINS GROW AND LUND.
Both Are Suspended—Governor West Approves the Findings.

The findings in the cases of Captains Orin R. Grow, of company A, National Guard of Utah, and H. M. Lund of company B, who were recently tried by court martial for disrespect to a superior officer, in taking their companies to Calder's park to drill during the Tuscarora encampment last June, have been made public. The charges are sustained in both cases, and the findings were yesterday approved by Governor West.

Colonel Frank M. Foote, commander of the First regiment, Wyoming National Guard, has made the following appointments on the regimental staff: Benjamin A. Ausherman, adjutant, with the rank of lieutenant, vice Arthur W. Butler, resigned; Dr. Park Holland, of Buffalo, surgeon, with rank of major, vice Dr. M. C. Barkwell, resigned; Dr. H. J. Maynard, of Cheyenne, assistant surgeon, with rank of captain, vice Dr. Park Holland, term expired; Dr. A. B. Hamilton, Laramie, second assistant surgeon, with rank of first lieutenant, vice W. P. Gilliam; Rev. D. B. Oviatt, of Laramie, chaplain, with rank of captain, vice R. D. Lawson, commission expired.—Cheyenne Sun.

Competent judges estimate that there is in the neighborhood of 250,000 pounds of wool remaining in this territory unsold or unconsigned to the eastern markets. This wool is held in small lots, none of which are much greater than 40,000 pounds, and the owners are, as a general rule, people who are not forced to sacrifice their clip, but are well able to hold on for what they consider an inevitable advance in the market. Their hopes are not shared by many of the operators, the latter taking the view that the market will not witness no kind of advance in the near future at least. It has lost considerable of the recent increase through lack of demand, the dealers say.—Manti Sentinel.

"Public Opinion" in the Dispatch says Frank Cannon has corralled the faithful in the "Cow counties." He evidently meant sheep counties for in the cow counties no Republican can get any foot hold, while Republicans claim that the Democrats have killed the sheep industry, the cattle men know to their sorrow who killed the cattle industry, and the farmers suspect that the same party is doing them up in great shape.—Manti Sentinel.

OUR EASTERN NEIGHBORS.
Colonel W. H. Root is still corresponding with parties in England in relation to the shipment of some good western horses to that country to be used in the English cavalry. The right kind of horses will bring $150 for use in the cavalry and they are in demand at that price. It is not like it is in this country. Horses are used for everything there. Everything that is moved is moved by horses, while in this country we are finding less use for the horse every year. People in the United States are beginning to predict that it is only a question of time when the horse will become a mere curiosity. There will be power of a different character for everything and people will not be troubled with horses.—Boomerang.

Antone, the Mexican, made one of the quickest and hardest rides ever put on record last Tuesday, says the Rock Springs Independent. He left Little Hole, south of Green River and about ten miles north of John Jarvis's store, at 1:30 in the afternoon and arrived in Rock Springs at 8 o'clock the same evening, riding a distance of eighty miles and using three horses on the trip. He came to take Dr. Field to

NEWS FROM NEAR-BY CITIES AND TOWNS.
ESTIMATE OF WOOL NOW IN THE TERRITORY.
State Senator Green White Convinced—Warrens Ore Shipped to Salt Lake—Feeling the Effects of Debs' Folly in Idaho—News Agent Preaching Republicanism. Soliciting Subscription and

Mr. B. F. Cummings is still in Cache county, ostensibly in the interest of the Desert News Publishing company, but rumor has it that he is putting in a word now and then for Republicanism.—Logan Journal.

On Wednesday Mr. Walter H. White, of Logan, led to the matrimonial altar Miss Annie Thornley, of Smithfield, and the twain were made one. A pleasant reception was given at the residence of the bride's parents the same evening.—Logan Journal.

State Senator Green White, who was taken sick with fever nearly three weeks ago, is still confined to his home but convalescing. One of the wisest, safest and most active counselors among the members of the Democratic party was sorely missed during the recent state convention times. His many friends will greatly rejoice to see him on the streets again.—Boise Democrat.

Never before have the different mining camps of southern Idaho looked more encouraging than at present. Especially is this the case in the counties of Boise and Owyhee. The local press constantly teem with rich and extensive claims on earth and good health prospects, which roared so cheerily for free surar on two occasions.—Boise Democrat.

The old camp of Sanger, northeast of Baker City, promises a revival of prosperity. Recent discoveries of gold deposits in gravel beds promising very rich returns.

Sanger, known in years gone by as Hogem, has been worked for its placer deposits and the yield in the aggregate has been enormous. In truth it may be said that Hogem during a period of years from about 1855 to 1875 was one of the richest placer camps in eastern Oregon, and was the scene of great activity in prospecting, mining and shipping. The first visit to the camp, there were hundreds of people in the camp and that life was manifest that chartered the mining camps of those days. Money was plentiful and other diggings from grass roots to bedrock were not unusual. But Hogem, under the change of all its camps, the placers were worked out and the followers of the pan and rocker moved on, other fields to explore; those who remained turned their attention to quartz mining and with fair success.—Baker City Democrat.

Al Jinger received the mail contract for a twice-a-week service between Challis and Salmon City, for $995 per year, and will commence on his duties on September 15, 1894. Al is now preparing to start on his trip. He is now on the above date, running a first-class line, carrying the United States mail, also passengers, express and freight.—Challis Messenger.

attend Mrs. Thomas Devenport, who was suffering with inflammation of the bowels, and after two days the doctor left his patient convalescent.

OUR NORTHERN NEIGHBORS.
The 1,600 pounds of ore brought out from Warrens by pack train and shipped to Salt Lake by ex-Governor Wilkey, has netted him $517. He is now having a car load of second grade ore packed out for shipment; it is being piled in Ennor Bros. corral. This "second grade," as they call it, will mill $250 a ton.—Weiser Signal.

Monday last was pay day. Some of the men received as little as $40, having worked but two days, on account of the Debs' strike. The worst feature about it is that it was the last pay day we shall see here, at least for many a day, as the shops close now for an indefinite period. Had that imbecile Debs foresight as long as his nose he would have never have called the strike which roared so cheerily for free surar on two occasions.—Boise Democrat.

The intelligent voters of the country will know where to put the blame for not having sugar put on the free list. The Democratic party, nine-tenths of which favors free sugar, is not responsible, nor is the Democratic House, which voted overwhelmingly for free surar on two occasions.—Boise Democrat.

State Senator Green White, who was taken sick with fever nearly three weeks ago, is still confined to his home but convalescing. One of the wisest, safest and most active counselors among the members of the Democratic party was sorely missed during the recent state convention times. His many friends will greatly rejoice to see him on the streets again.—Boise Democrat.

Never before have the different mining camps of southern Idaho looked more encouraging than at present. Especially is this the case in the counties of Boise and Owyhee. The local press constantly teem with rich and extensive claims on earth and good health prospects, which roared so cheerily for free surar on two occasions.—Boise Democrat.

The old camp of Sanger, northeast of Baker City, promises a revival of prosperity. Recent discoveries of gold deposits in gravel beds promising very rich returns.

Sanger, known in years gone by as Hogem, has been worked for its placer deposits and the yield in the aggregate has been enormous. In truth it may be said that Hogem during a period of years from about 1855 to 1875 was one of the richest placer camps in eastern Oregon, and was the scene of great activity in prospecting, mining and shipping. The first visit to the camp, there were hundreds of people in the camp and that life was manifest that chartered the mining camps of those days. Money was plentiful and other diggings from grass roots to bedrock were not unusual. But Hogem, under the change of all its camps, the placers were worked out and the followers of the pan and rocker moved on, other fields to explore; those who remained turned their attention to quartz mining and with fair success.—Baker City Democrat.

Al Jinger received the mail contract for a twice-a-week service between Challis and Salmon City, for $995 per year, and will commence on his duties on September 15, 1894. Al is now preparing to start on his trip. He is now on the above date, running a first-class line, carrying the United States mail, also passengers, express and freight.—Challis Messenger.

NO OBJECT

IS TRUER TO ITS

Center of Gravity

Than Trade is to

Our Low Prices.

TRADE IS SURELY GRAVITATING TO THE SIEGEL CLOTHING COMPANY AT 61-63-65 MAIN STREET, SALT LAKE, 2431-2433 WASHINGTON AVENUE, OGDEN, 213-215 NORTH MAIN STREET, BUTTE, WHERE WE HAVE ESTABLISHED OUR TRADE CENTERS. THE ATTRACTIONS FOR THE COMING FALL AND WINTER ARE INNUMERABLE. EVERYTHING SPICK AND SPAN NEW, CLEAN AS A WHISTLE. THE QUALITY IS IMMENSE AND OUT OF SIGHT, BUT THE PRICES ARE SO SMALL YOU CAN CARRY THEM IN YOUR EYE.

Our elegant Line of Fall Hats just received. We propose to place on sale at the following prices, Soft and Stiff, Derby & Fedora, Straight and Curl Brim, High and Low Crown: $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00 and $4.00. The High Grade Derby Hat usually placed on the market at $5.00 we propose to sell for $4.00, Grade, Finish, Style and Quality being equal to any Hat on the Market at $5.00.

Our New Fall Styles of Men's, Boys' and Youth's Suits are arriving Daily.

We invite you. A visitor always becomes a patron of the Siegel Clothing Company.

The Siegel Clothing Co.

SALT LAKE, OGDEN, BUTTE.

Probate Court.
Estate and guardianship of Arthur Bennion, a minor; guardian's account allowed.

Estate of William J. Woodbury, deceased; hearing of return of real estate sale September 12.

POLICE COURT.
Several Cases Disposed of By Justice Smith Yesterday.

Another continuance was yesterday granted in the Faray case, which should have been heard in the police court at the afternoon session. On Friday the sure-thing man was given ninety days for vagrancy, and then demanded a trial on the charge of gambling, which had stood on the record since August 23. On account of the absence of the assistant city attorney, the prosecution requested a continuance, and the case went over until Tuesday.

P. Hull, the young hussy who was on Wednesday found guilty of an assault and battery upon the person of his wife, came before the bar of the court for sentence. The court imposed a fine of $10, which was promptly paid.

Two ride-stealers and one beggar were given ten days each, four drunkards $5 each into the city treasury, and two prostitutes were assessed $8.50 each. For leaving his team unhitched, Kanute Sorenson forfeited $2.

Cases Tried in the Court.
The report of the clerk of the police court for the month of August; which will go to the council on Tuesday, gives the total number of cases tried in the court as 440.

Jail Very Well Filled.
The city jail is just now crowded far beyond its capacity, there being fifty-one prisoners confined in the bastille. Of these all are males.

AUCTION: AUCTION!
On Tuesday, September 4th, at 10:30 a. m. No. 77 East Fifth Street, there will be sold, two oak bedroom sets, springs and mattresses, bed lounge and other lounges, lot of fine carpets, fine lot of willow and other rockers, office swivel chair, lot of blankets and home made quilts, line lap robe, lot of books, china, glass and granite ware, cook stove, gasline stove, elegant oak extension table, cost $30, window curtains and poles, tubs and wringer, and a lot of kitchen utensils; also one ladies' Kamble bicycle, pneumatic tire, one gent's pneumatic tire and one small boy's. All must be sold. Parties going away. K. A. Andrews, auctioneer. Salesrooms and office, No. 72 Main street.