

BRATTLEBORO SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1860.

For President, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, of Illinois. For Vice President, HANNIBAL HAMLIN, of Maine.

THE ELECTION.

Vermont, as loyal to rational, constitutional liberty as it is the magnetic needle to its pole, the veritable North Star of Republicanism, has again given a quiet but none the less effective response to the principles enunciated at Chicago, and embodied in the nomination of ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

From the returns thus far received it appears that the Republicans have elected their State ticket by about 20,000 majority; all their candidates for the Senate; all the county officers in every county in the State; and 210 out of the 235 to 240 Representatives.

We have no occasion for boasting for there is no victory. In scarcely a single county has there been an enemy to contend with. Here and there were to be seen small odds—how small!—knots of stragglers who fled before the march of the dominant party so unceremoniously as hardly to indicate the direction they had taken.

WINDHAM COUNTY has polled the largest vote east at any State election of which we have any record. At the same time the Republican majority for governor will be slightly reduced from that of 1856. The vote four years since was—Fletcher 3383; Keyes 683; total 4076.

A PROFTLESS VENTURE.—We understand that one of the distinguished luminaries of the Democracy in this county made a missionary tour through the towns of Halifax, Guilford, and Vernon, for the purpose of enlightening the ignorant, confirming the wavering, encouraging the doubting, and by the wisdomness of his engaging manners and fervid eloquence to strengthen the cause of the Douglas star.

MR. MORRILL'S VOTE.—It gives us pleasure to note the fact that our able and faithful representative in Congress, the Hon. JUSTIN S. MORRILL has been re-elected, so far as this county is concerned, by a largely increased majority.

THE NEXT HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES will contain an unusually large number of able, experienced and prominent men, at whose hands the State will receive no detriment we are quite confident. In addition to the Hon. ARTHUR STODDARD, the Hon. EBENEZER HOWE, and CHARLES K. FIELD, Esq; for this county we notice the names of the Hon. EDWARD SEYMOUR of Vergennes, the Hon. JOHN G. SMITH of St. Albans, A. B. GARDNER, Esq, of Bennington, HORACE ALLEN, Esq, of Rutland, the Hon. AUGUSTUS P. HUNTON of Bethel, the Hon. THOMAS GLEED of Morrisville, JOHN A. CHILD, Esq, of Hydepark, and many others of note.

THE COVODE INVESTIGATION.—We are indebted to the Hon. JUSTIN S. MORRILL for a copy of the report of the Covode Investigation Committee. It is really a "Life of James Buchanan," 800 pp., large octavo, published under the authority of Congress. We venture the assertion that more truth is told of the "old public functionary in this volume, and a deeper insight into his character will be obtained by its perusal, than can be gathered from all the campaign "Lives" that were published in 1856.

Vote for Governor and Representatives.

WINDHAM COUNTY.

Table with columns: Name, Votes, and Party. Includes names like Athens, Brattleboro, Brookline, etc.

Table with columns: Name, Votes, and Party. Includes names like Bridport, Bristol, Cornwall, etc.

Table with columns: Name, Votes, and Party. Includes names like Arlington, Bennington, Brattleboro, etc.

Table with columns: Name, Votes, and Party. Includes names like Barre, Burke, Danville, etc.

Table with columns: Name, Votes, and Party. Includes names like Barre, Burke, Danville, etc.

Table with columns: Name, Votes, and Party. Includes names like Barre, Burke, Danville, etc.

Table with columns: Name, Votes, and Party. Includes names like Barre, Burke, Danville, etc.

Table with columns: Name, Votes, and Party. Includes names like Barre, Burke, Danville, etc.

Table with columns: Name, Votes, and Party. Includes names like Barre, Burke, Danville, etc.

Table with columns: Name, Votes, and Party. Includes names like Barre, Burke, Danville, etc.

Table with columns: Name, Votes, and Party. Includes names like Barre, Burke, Danville, etc.

Table with columns: Name, Votes, and Party. Includes names like Barre, Burke, Danville, etc.

Table with columns: Name, Votes, and Party. Includes names like Barre, Burke, Danville, etc.

Table with columns: Name, Votes, and Party. Includes names like Barre, Burke, Danville, etc.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

BRATTLEBORO.—Taking the vote for Lieutenant Governor, which was 405 or 10 more than that cast for Governor, as a basis 673 votes were cast for the State ticket. This vote is larger than the average, but not so large by nearly 200 votes as would be polled were all the voters of the town present and voting.

Some of the Breckinridge friends of this town unaccountably "forgot" the night before the election for the purpose of defeating B. D. Harris, one of the Republican candidates for senator. They printed a ticket as near like the Republican ticket as possible, with the exception of substituting the name of OTIS WARREN for that of B. D. HARRIS.

PHYSICIAN.—William Murphy, a "professor" of physical education, or, more properly speaking, a man who travels on his muscle, was arrested Wednesday, charged with an assault on a young girl belonging to West Brattleboro, named Mavelette Miller.

WINDHAM COUNTY.—Senators. Republican, Douglas, Breck. Athens, 60 63 57 7 12 16 16

States Attorney and Sheriff. States Attorney, Sheriff. Athens, 63 7 63 7

Members of Congress. Athens, 64 3 10 10

Justices of the Peace. Athens, 64 3 10 10

Washington County. Athens, 64 3 10 10

Washington County. Athens, 64 3 10 10

Washington County. Athens, 64 3 10 10

Washington County. Athens, 64 3 10 10

Washington County. Athens, 64 3 10 10

Washington County. Athens, 64 3 10 10

Washington County. Athens, 64 3 10 10

an esteemed correspondent in Windham county, in a recent letter, says to us:—"The Democracy of Vermont is in a state of confusion. The Democratic party is divided into two factions. One faction is in favor of Lincoln, and the other is in favor of Breckinridge.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

LATER FROM EUROPE.

The reabstaining Palestine, from Liverpool August 25th and Londonderry (Ireland) 20th, passed Farther Point Canada, Tuesday morning.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN CANADA. A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kingston, C. A. under date of Sept. 4th, says:

AN EXTRAORDINARY EXCITEMENT has arisen in this city, in consequence of the stubborn denials of the Orangemen to-day, and the refusal of the Prince of Wales and his suite to yield to their humors.